From Geoffrey's Desk . . .

I want to begin by thanking Jeff Shocklee for speaking in my absence this past Sunday. I was away with our youth group at Winterfest in Gatlinburg. It was 15 degrees and snowing as we loaded up the buses, but the next day, the weather warmed up to 50 degrees. The trip went well as we joined thousands of other teens in a study of the book of Daniel. In the middle of it all, we were able to work in a go-cart outing, but that's another story. There were two major points that were emphasized throughout the weekend. One was a call to do whatever we can do in the place where we find ourselves, and the other was the reminder that it is easier to resist the devil when we have others standing alongside of us. I am thankful for the stories that have been preserved in the Old Testament, and I hope we will learn from them. I am also thankful for the time I was able to spend around our young people and for the safe travels we had on both legs of the trip. I will look forward to being back with you this coming Sunday.

Quilts

Dorcas Minsitry

The Docas Ministry is making quilts for the Laing and Lancaster families after the loss of children this past year. Shellaine Kiser and Diana McArthur have fabric squares that will be used in the quilts, and they would like as many of us as possible to write a personal message on one of those squares. The "message" can be anything -- a word, a Bible verse, a song title, a phrase, a prayer, a memory, a poem, etc. Don't worry about your handwriting. It will make your square unique! We want these families to know they are covered in our prayers. See Shellaine or Diana either TONIGHT or THIS SUNDAY, February 23, to participate.
