From Geoffrey's Desk . . .

I want to use my column this week to mention a few things concerning our youth ministry. First of all, I encourage you to scroll down and see some photos from this past weekend. Our youth group hosted several area teens for a night of fun and games. I am glad that they could all take the opportunity to get together.

Our young people will have another opportunity for a combined meeting as we host the monthly Area Wide at our building on Sunday, March 8, at 6:00. We are encouraging all Life Groups to take part in that gathering. Our speaker will be David Skidmore. David has served as Youth Minister for the North Boulevard Church of Christ in Murfreesboro for nearly 20 years. He spoke here last year at this event, and we welcome him back. I am always encouraged every time I hear David, and I hope you will plan on being here for that session. In conjunction with that, we can use help with the meal we will be providing that evening, so scroll down to get details about that.

I want to mention that on Sunday, March 15, we are going to be taking up a special contribution for Youth Missions. You will be hearing more about this over the next couple weeks, but start preparing to give generously to help our young people involved themselves in various works that bring glory to Jesus.

Finally, as I write, I am reflecting that today, February 26, would have been my father's 90th birthday had he lived. I continue to be thankful for the godly influence he had on me and for the wonderful example he set for his family. He preached from his college years on. Two decades of that was full-time, and the rest was part-time. But most of all, he lived his message with his life. I am blessed to have been his son.

Covered in Love

Deadline Extended

The Docas Ministry is making quilts for the Laing and Lancaster families after the loss of children this past year. Shellaine Kiser and Diana McArthur have fabric squares that will be used in the quilts, and they would like as many of us as possible to write a personal message on one of those squares. The "message" can be anything -- a word, a Bible verse, a song title, a phrase, a prayer, a memory, a poem, etc. Don't worry about your handwriting. It will make your square unique! We want these families to know they are covered in our prayers. See Shellaine or Diana TONIGHT or THIS SUNDAY, March 1, to participate.
