From Geoffrey's Desk . . .

I want to start out by saying a few words about our youth group. First of all, on Sunday of last week, they served as hosts for our Senior Saints Valentine Luncheon. They did a great job getting food to tables and keeping drinks refreshed. The meal was delicious, and it was a blessing to everyone in attendance. This past Sunday, several of our youth were camped out at the carport near the kitchen to help bring in food for our churchwide potluck. That was a big help. And then, this weekend, they are heading to Gatlinburg for another Winterfest gathering. Let's keep them in our prayers as they travel. I know they will be lifted up by that time together.

Last week, I was able to travel once again to the Freed-Hardeman Lectureship in Henderson, Tennessee. It is always good to be with longtime friends and to have opportunities to attend a number of classes and lessons. I am thankful to this church for giving me that opportunity.

I thank everyone who helped with our special day this Sunday as we had visitors from the Clarksville Christian School. It was nice to be able to sit and listen as the school's president, Brad Moser, brought the lesson for our morning worship assembly. The potluck was excellent as always, and I appreciate all the time and energy that went into that. It was also good to be able to listen to the presentation by the CCS High School Concert Choir. Three of our own young people (Colin Cameron, Elitta Middleton, and Rachel Russell) are part of that group, and they did a great job. A big thank you all around.

Finally, I want to shine a light on an announcement that slipped past me on Sunday. As we have been mentioning, there is a wedding shower for Kelly Russell and Jon Langle this coming Sunday from 2:00-3:00 at our building. However, this weekend is also the deadline for sending an RSVP if you will be able to come to the wedding next month on March 14. If you will be able to make it, please let Kelly know now. You can scroll down for her contact information and for details about the wedding. We wish Jon and Kelly all the best.

Quilts

Dorcas Minsitry

The Dorcas Ministry is making quilts for the Laing and Lancaster families after the loss of children this past year. Shellaine Kiser and Diana McArthur have fabric squares that will be used in the quilts, and they would like as many of us as possible to write a personal message on one of those squares. The "message" can be anything -- a word, a Bible verse, a song title, a phrase, a prayer, a memory, a poem, etc. Don't worry about your hand writing. It will make it authentic! We want them to know they are covered in our prayers. Fabric squares are available in the office, or you can pick them up in the gym on Wednesday nights or Sunday mornings. Please contact Shellaine or Diana by February 23 to participate.
