From Geoffrey's Desk . . .

Well, our 2020 Vacation Bible School is just about over. One more day, and it will be history. It has taken some doing to try and keep everyone safe, but I appreciate all the extra measures that have been put into place. A lot of people have pitched in to help make this week great as we have explored the idea of being "Anchored in Faith." The kids are learning about Noah and Job, and they are seeing how faith got those men through some very difficult times. A huge thank you goes to B. J. Worthington for his vision in putting this on and for all the months of planning. I also want to recognize Chris Watson for the many hours she put into painting a variety of our sea creatures. As is always the case, we never know exactly what will come from the seeds that are planted during weeks like these, but we will see what God does in giving the increase.

Preaching from the deck of a ship was an interesting experience this past Sunday, and a lot of work went into building that structure. A special thanks goes to Wilton McKinney for his construction work behind the scenes. I imagine I will be once again preaching on "dry ground" this coming Sunday morning at 10:00, and I will look forward to seeing you then if you can join us.
