FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

Well, I understand that Punxsutawney Phil saw his shadow on Tuesday, so it looks like we are in for six more weeks of winter weather. Now those folks in the northeastern United States may think that he hit the mark, but in actuality, we all know that there is nothing scientific in the annual ritual of bringing a groundhog out once a year to predict the weather. It's a bit fun to see what will happen each year, but I remind us of the words we read in James 4:13-14, "Come now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit': whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow.” As a matter of fact, we are shown over and over that even the weather prognosticators don’t really know what is going to happen with the weather over the next 24 hours (not to mention when the forecast goes out a week or more into the future). So for now, let’s not borrow trouble and get too down over Phil’s forecast. Let’s make the most of each day as it comes along, and let’s be looking for opportunities to let those around us know about Jesus.

By now, several of you have heard about the death of Jennifer Yates’ father. His funeral service is tomorrow in Dickson, and you can scroll down for more information. Our sympathy goes out to Jennifer and the family during this time.

The Wednesday Morning Ladies Bible Class will not meet during the month of February. They hope to resume meeting in March. They are delaying meeting due to the COVID-19 Virus, vaccinations, and moms and grandmas helping with virtual schooling.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Jennifer Yates at the passing of her father, Stephen Yates. Visitation will be tomorrow, February 4, at the Spann Funeral Home in Dickson from 11-1pm with the funeral service at 1:00.

Thank You

I feel surrounded by a "garden of flowers" as I see my beautiful cards from friends there (and texts from "The Well" volunteers) and all the prayers of you all as I'm lifted up to God for me and my trial I've gone through this last month.

I've never been on this side of the bed before.
I'm hoping to be home by the end of the month,
Lord willing.

In Him,
Linda Kelsey
Travis Merchant's Mother
