FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

What a great day we had this past Sunday. It was wonderful to see so many little children up front along with their families as we presented them with Bibles and had prayer over them. I heard from a number of people about how special it was that we could have Dr. Vann lead that prayer (even though he wasn't with us in person). A number of hands went up when I asked how many people had used Dr. Vann as their family's doctor. He and his wife, Carolyn, have been a vital part of this church family for years, and we are looking forward to having them back with us in person soon.

We got word this week that Janet Fulford, the wife of Hugh Fulford, had passed away this past Saturday. Hugh and Janet worked with this church family (when it was the Madison Street Church of Christ) from 1964-1967 when Hugh served as preacher. As a matter of fact, Hugh spoke at the final Friends and Family Homecoming Day at Madison Street, and he spoke at the groundbreaking for our current property here at Trenton Crossing. Our sympathy goes out to Hugh in his loss. Visitation for Janet is tomorrow in Gallatin, and you can scroll down for details.

This coming Sunday is Memorial Day. It is a time when we remember those who died in military conflicts. Perhaps we are more aware of that because of our proximity to Fort Campbell, but I hope you will take some time to reflect on the sacrifices that have been made to give us the freedoms that we enjoy in this country. And even more important than that is the sacrifice that was made at the cross to offer us freedom in Christ. I want to focus on that this coming Sunday in our time together, and I hope to see you then.

-gs-

Our sympathy is expressed to Hugh Fulford in the death of his wife, Janet. Hugh preached for this church (when we were the Madison Street Church of Christ) from 1964-1967. Visitation will be tomorrow, May 27, from 10:00-1:00 at the Family Heritage Funeral Home (100 Albert Avenue) in Gallatin. A graveside service will be held at 2:00 at Cedar Grove Cemetery (609 S. Maple St.) in Lebanon.
