FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

What wonderful weather we have been having this week! As Fall Break ended this past Sunday, it was good to see our numbers back up. The previous week, we had as many people traveling as I can remember. Those of you who were with us heard the announcement that Ron Smith is going to be serving as our Young Adult minister. Ron and his wife, Amanda, began worshiping with us shortly before COVID hit, and as he begins his work here, he will be teaching on Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings in Room 101 off our gym. The Sunday morning class will be for Young Adults, and the Wednesday evening gathering will be a Men's Class co-taught with Andy Cameron. In addition, I am going to be teaching on Sunday mornings in Fellowship Hall, and I want to particularly encourage parents with children at home to be a part of that class. I am thankful that things continue to open up here, and as always, I encourage you to scroll down for more details about upcoming events.
