FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

What a beautiful weather day we had this past Sunday. It was sunny with temperatures in the 60s, and that made things perfect for a fall parade. More than two dozen cars, in addition to two fire trucks and a police car, joined the queue that wrapped around the Tennessee Veterans Home. The residents there were tremendously grateful for our presence and our attention. I was honored to say a few words and to lead a few patriotic songs, and I want to give a special thanks to BJ Worthington for organizing the event. We are already talking about doing it next year.

Before the parade, several people took advantage of the QPR Suicide Prevention workshop hosted by Eric and Erin Yow. The rates of suicide in this country are especially high among teens, and I am thankful to Eric and Erin for the training that they provided.

Finally, those of you who were here Sunday heard from David Harper about the work of World Bible School. I am thankful that we have been involved with this work for a number of years, and this coming Sunday, we will taking up our annual special contribution for that work. You are always so generous in giving to this cause, and I know that this year will be no different. Let's all prepare to give generously to this great cause.

Nursery Workers

We have a calendar for the final two months of 2021 on the Sign-Up Board where you can volunteer to sit, play, rock, or cuddle with our little children (0-3yrs old) during our Sunday worship services. We only ask that you sign up for one Sunday (although you can sign up for more). If you have any questions, please see Gwyn Huggins.

We are also looking for a paid nursery worker. This person would take care of the nursery during the Sunday School and Worship hours and straighten up afterwards. If you would like to apply, or if you know someone who would be interested, please see Jill Compton, Gwyn Huggins, or Megan Kent.

Wednesday Night Devo

December 3, 6:00pm

The time has rolled around for another Gift Exchange hosted by Geoffrey and Joanna Sikes. Adults of all ages (from Young Adults to the Young at Heart) are invited. Leave the kids at home, and plan on coming and having some fun! This year it will be Friday, December 3, beginning at 6:00pm at Geoffrey and Joanna's home (2248 Jasmine Drive).

Each person should bring:

1. A gift to exchange
2. A 2-liter drink (one per person or couple)
3. Finger Food
4. A sense of humor

Please do not spend a lot of money on a gift. You may have the perfect "re-gift" at your house right now. Be creative, and get ready to enjoy a great time together.
