FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

Let me begin by wishing you a Happy New Year 2022! Like many of you, I did some traveling over the holidays, and I appreciate Jeff Shocklee bringing the lesson last Sunday. As we begin a new year together, I have some resolutions I would like to share with you, and I will look forward to doing that this coming Sunday.

As another year rolls around, we'll see what lies ahead. Certainly when 2020 began, we had no idea that a pandemic was about to change all of our lives, and I would dare say that 2021 probably turned out much differently than we thought it might. And how many of us anticipated COVID still being at the top of the news in 2022? Hopefully, this year will see a significant lessening of its impact, and I hope you are praying for that. But these past two years have been vivid reminders that we never know what lies ahead. That is why it is so important to put our trust in God, come what may. Let's resolve to do that in the coming months as we put our hands in the hand of God. Walking together with Him, we can accomplish great things for the kingdom, regardless of the physical circumstances which come our way.
