FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

As most of you know, I was not with you this past Sunday. Although I felt well enough to be present, a positive COVID test kept me home. I appreciate Jeff Shocklee stepping in to bring the lesson, and I am thankful I was able to join everyone online. I am also thankful that my symptoms have been mild.

I know we have a holiday weekend coming up and that some of you may be traveling, and if that is the case with you, we pray for safe journeys. And for those of you who will be here, I will look forward to being back with you this coming Sunday, Lord willing.

35th Anniversary

Geoffrey and Joanna have been with us for 35 amazing years. We have watched their children grow just as they have watched ours. Geoffrey has taught, baptized, married, counseled, and comforted so many of us. Joanna has taught, fed, hosted showers, and also comforted us. We would like to thank them by collecting notes of appreciation and thanks. We have a basket at the Welcome Center to collect the notes—as well as cards you can write on. Feel free to mail or email a note as well. We will be collecting them through this Sunday.
