FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

What a wonderful day we had this past Sunday. We had Al and Lisa Robertson (of the “Duck Dynasty” Robertson family) with us as our special guests here at Trenton Crossing on Sunday morning, and Al brought us a great lesson on the idea of being “Unashamed.” (I remind those of you who weren’t here that you can watch that lesson on our “Church of Christ at Trenton Crossing” Facebook page.) Later on in the evening, Al spoke at our youth Area Wide gathering at Clarksville Christian School, and he shared the story of his life journey and the salvation that Jesus offers. In the first part of the evening, ReGen Harmony had a great teaching session as we learned several new four-part harmony songs. The following morning, Al came to our building to record a couple of episodes of the "Unashamed" podcast before he and Lisa hit the road to return to West Monroe, Louisiana. I want to send out one more huge thank you to Chris Middleton for all his work in coordinating the events of the day. He has been working on this since last summer. The entire day was a blessing, and I pray that much good will continue to come out of all of the events of the weekend.

On a completely unrelated note, today is Groundhog Day, and I understand that Punxsutawney Phil has predicted six more weeks of winter. Thankfully, his predictions are more wrong than right (depending on whom you might ask), so I guess we'll see. In the meantime, perhaps we could simply check the weather each time before leaving our houses. As a matter of fact, we may be getting some ice here tomorrow evening. Thankfully, it should be out of the way by Sunday. I will look forward to seeing you then.
