FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

I appreciate the response to this past Sunday's sermon on the way we are to live within our culture. Although we may be in "exile" for some time, we can still have a great influence on those around us. Let's never be ashamed to let others know that we are followers of Jesus, no matter what may be going on around us. We never know what effect we may be having on others.

We are going to have several people away this coming Sunday. This is the weekend for the annual (except for last year) Winterfest gathering in Gatlinburg. Chris is taking our youth group, and several chaperones will be joining them. Let's be praying for safe travel for everyone who will be coming and going to that event. And for those of you who are staying here, I will look forward to seeing you on Sunday.
