FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

Easter is on the horizon, and that means that we are approaching the time of year that Jesus was crucified. We need to never forget what happened on the Sunday immediately preceding that event. He made a triumphal entry into Jerusalem as He rode in on a donkey. Palm branches and clothing were spread in His path, and the crowd was chanting, "Hosanna! [Save us!]" The multitudes appeared to be on His side. But before the week was out, many of those same people were chanting, "Crucify Him!" Let's be reminded that the crowd can turn on a dime and that followers of Christ can often be found to be out of favor.

However, no matter what comes our way, we have a wonderful hope of resurrection one day, and let's always hold on to the wonderful promises that God gives us in His word.

The empty buckets are located near the church office. You can pick up, or drop off, buckets Monday through Friday, 9-3, or when you are here for Bible classes or worship. Please tell your neighbors and friends. If you need more information, see Chris Middleton.
