FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

We had a good day this past Sunday. It has been good seeing higher numbers with school starting and the summer travel season winding down. We are using that momentum to announce the resumption of LIFE Group meetings for adults without children, and several of you signed up for that this week. There is still room, and I encourage you to consider being a part of one of those groups this coming year.

This coming Sunday, we will be welcoming Mark Jent with us. He works with the M.A.G.I. program of Healing Hands, International, and he will be speaking during our 10:00 worship assembly. He will also be speaking to a combined class of Grade 6 through adults during our 9:00 hour. We welcome him to Trenton Crossing.

Finally, for many years, the end of August has meant a visit from Walt Leaver, and this year is no exception. Walt preaches for the Brentwood Hills Church of Christ in Nashville, and he also works for Lipscomb University. He will be speaking in our Fellowship Hall next Wednesday (August 31) at 6:30, and he will be addressing Grade 6 through adults. His topic is “10 Ways to Live Supernaturally,” and I know we will be blessed by what he has to say. It will be a time of food, fun, and fellowship, and you will be hearing more specific details this coming Sunday. I will look forward to seeing you then.

There is a donation box at the back of the Worship Center. Lists of supplies are also available on the table.
